Program requirements

The competition runs over three rounds. At the end of a scoring round, the jury will decide who will go on to the next round. The decision will be announced on the evening of the judging day.

The program must not be repeated in subsequent rounds.

It is preferable to perform original literature.

Program and line-up changes are possible until 15.09.2025. Changes after this date will result in disqualification.

1st round - total playing time 15-18 minutes

- Compulsory work:
 - 3 movements from Gustav Gunsenheimer - Sonata No. 2 for solo instrument and guitar
Vogt&Fritz Verlag, V&F 1010 - please specify the desired edition of the solo part when ordering - currently available for C instrument, viola, Bb clarinet, cello/bassoon - other clefs available on request
- Compulsory additional free program

2nd round - total playing time 20 - 25 minutes

Two compulsory elective works:

- a complete work or complete movement of serious new music (no folklore)

AND

- a complete work or complete movement composed before 1850

A free program can also be added.

Final - total playing time 25 - 35 minutes

- free program in compliance with the following guidelines:
 - a complete, multi-movement work must be included
 - Works from at least two different eras

The program selection for the finale should follow the format of a classical concert of serious music. Care should be taken to select works that do justice to the musical character of the respective instrumentation.
